PREFACE

The 36th edition of the Directory of Community legislation in force <sup>(1)</sup> published by the institutions of the European Communities contains all Community legislation set out in the Official Journal of the European Communities up to 1 January 2001 <sup>(2)</sup>.

The Directory is compiled from the Celex database, the interinstitutional computerised documentation system for Community law, which has been open to the public since 1981. Celex users will be able, using the document numbers given in the Directory, to call up on their terminal the full texts of documents they wish to see and obtain details of any amendments to them since the last edition of the Directory.

With regard to the range of documentation covered, it was felt that the Directory should include not only current Community legislation as such but also other instruments reflecting the activities of the European Union (EU, ECSC, EEC, EC and Euratom) such as policy instruments and decisions taken in individual cases but of more general interest.

The Directory therefore covers:

- (a) agreements and conventions concluded by the Communities in connection with their external relations;
- (b) binding secondary legislation (regulations, decisions, ECSC general decisions and recommendations, EEC/EC/Euratom directives) under the Treaties establishing the European Union and the European Communities, with the exception of day-to-day administrative acts <sup>(3)</sup>;
- (c) supplementary legislation, in particular decisions of representatives of the Governments of the Member States meeting within the Council;
- (d) certain non-binding acts considered by the institutions to be important.

The Directory appears in two volumes:

- Volume I, the main body of the Directory, consists of 20 chapters with acts arranged according to subject,
- Volume II contains chronological and alphabetical indexes of the acts appearing in Volume I.

<sup>(2)</sup> The Directory is published twice a year and contains information on Community legislation published in the Official Journal of the European Communities from 1 January to 1 July.

<sup>(3)</sup> Mainly acts arising from the day-to-day management of the common agricultural policy or the customs union and having a very limited period of validity, such as acts temporarily fixing various rates or amounts. For the most part they correspond to the titles printed in light type on the contents page of the Official Journal of the European Communities.

The Directory is published in the official Community languages and will be updated and re-published every six months.

The Directory is meant purely as a documentation tool and the institutions do not assume any liability for its contents.

INFORMATION FOR READERS

1. PRESENTATION OF DOCUMENTS

Each entry comprises: the document number of the act, its title, its bibliographical reference (in most cases the Official Journal of the European Communities) and, if applicable, the document number of any amendments with their publication reference in brackets.

Example

31968 R 1612

Concil Regulation (EEC) No 1612/68 of 15 October 1968 on freedom of movement for workers within the Community

OJ L 257 19.10.1968 p. 2

Amended by 172B

Derogation in 179H

Applic. delayed by 185I

Incorporated by 21994A0103(55) (OJ L 001 03.01.1994 p. 325.)

Amended by 31992R2434 (OJ L 245 26.08.1992 p. 1.)

1.1. The document number

The document number, shown in bold type above the title of the act, consists of a combination of figures and letters, the position of each having a particular meaning (see 'Explanation of codes').

The document number enables all acts to be identified both in the body of the Directory and in the chronological index.

The example given below is a simple, but by far the most frequent, form using 10 positions. Although the document number may theoretically extend to as many as 18 positions, there is no need for the reader to know precisely how document numbers are made up.

Example of document number:

3 1993 R 2454

3	1993	R	2454	Celex documentary sector	(sector 3= secondary legislation)
				Year of adoption or publication of legal act	(1993)
				Legal form	(R = Regulation)
				Serial or other identifying number of legal act	(Regulation No 2454 of the year in question)

INFORMATION FOR READERS (cont'd)

The first figure (in the example, the figure 3) indicates the sector in the Celex system under which the act is classified.

In the example shown above, the act forms part of Community secondary legislation (sector 3).

The letter which is always in the sixth position (in the example, the letter R) denotes, as in the Celex system, the legal form of the act (e.g. R for Regulation, D for Decision, L for Directive, etc.) <sup>(1)</sup>.

1.2. Title

The document number is followed by the full title of the legal act.

In the English, Danish and Greek editions, the titles of some acts prior to the accession of the Member States have distinctive features <sup>(2)</sup>.

1.3. The publication reference

The title of the act is followed by the publication reference, generally the Official Journal of the European Communities.

This reference consists of:

- the number of the Official Journal, preceded in the case of post-1968 instruments (when the Official Journal was subdivided into an 'L' and a 'C' series) by the letter for the series,
- the date of publication,
- the page number.

For example: OJ L 253 11.10.1993 p. 1, is interpreted as follows :

<sup>(2)</sup> Unofficial translations (marked/**/) are given of the titles of acts of general application which have not been published in the special English or Danish editions of the Official Journal of the European Communities. The titles of decisions relating to individual cases are followed by the words '/*Not available in English/Danish/Greek*/'.

1.4. References to amending acts

The publication reference of the acts is followed, where appropriate, by references to subsequent acts affecting it (amending, replacing, etc.).

The act referred to is identified by its document number followed by its publication reference in brackets.

Example

2. DOCUMENT RETRIEVAL

A document may be retrieved using either the analytical structure, the alphabetical index or the chronological index.

Example

Retrieval of a Regulation on the determination of the origin of certain woven textile products.

INFORMATION FOR READERS (cont'd)

2.1. Use of the analytical structure

The relevant section entitled 'Origin of goods', is to be found in the chapter entitled 'Customs union and free movement of goods' in the analytical structure:

	Page
02 Customs union and free movement of goods	...
02.20 Basic customs instruments	...
02.20.30 Origin of goods	...

Acts listed in each section are arranged in ascending order of their document numbers (see points 1.1 and 2.3): by sector (first figure), year, legal form (indicated by a letter) and serial or other identifying number (e.g. Regulation number).

The entry for the Regulation in question, (EEC) No 1039/71, is set out in the section 'Origin of goods' as follows:

31971 R 1039

Commission Regulation (EEC) No 1039/71 of 24 May 1971
on determining the origin of certain woven textile products

OJ L 113 25.05.71 p. 13

M by 31978R0749 (OJ L 101 14.04.78 p. 7)

2.2 Use of the alphabetical index

Regulation (EEC) No 1039/71 can also be located by looking up the headings 'Origin' and 'Goods' in the alphabetical index (Volume II); these direct the reader to the relevant subsections and to the pages on which those subsections start.

2.3 Use of chronological index of document numbers

By looking up the document number of Regulation (EEC) No 1039/71 in the chronological index in Volume II, the reader will find the page in the body of the Directory on which the Regulation appears.
